Gender identity is here regarded as distinct from biological sex so this does not necessarily mean sex based on organs but your internal feelings as to the gender you consider yourself. This could be based on personal experiences, interactions with others or many other things.

Please place a mark on the scale below, anywhere along the continuum to indicate where you feel your gender identity currently lies. If you feel that your gender identity does not fit anywhere on the scale please indicate below but do try to complete the scale.

How would you describe your sexual orientation?

What genders have you had physical sexual experiences with? (including kissing)

Roughly what proportion of your physical sexual experience has been with the genders you have listed above? (For example 50% with female and 50% with male)

Could you ever imagine being physical sexually, with a woman/man?
